Designer's Note. Built from the real HH3e digitized "Inductii" profile (`Night Lords.json`) — the same cheap horde-tier recruit archetype seen on the Sons of Horus, Thousand Sons, and Iron Warriors rosters, real stat line structurally identical across all four Legions (M7/WS4/BS4/S4/T4/W1/A2/LD7/SAV3+, no invulnerable save). Priced identically at 90/170pts for 10/20. Killer's Blade is real and canonically named — a mandatory unit-wide melee weapon (real Breaching(6+)/Precision(6+)) translated here to the 11e core [PRECISION] ability, since AP is already listed as "-" on the real profile. Unscrupulous Murderers is real and genuinely distinctive: the source describes a bespoke "Art of Murder" aftermath option in which every Inductii with the rule rolls a die for a chance to land a Precision hit on an enemy model that chose to Hold, Disengage, or Fall Back after a Combat this unit won or drew — translated directly as a Fall-Back-punishing mortal wound roll at the end of the Fight phase, preserving the Night Lords' signature "we hunt what runs" identity rather than folding it into a generic ability shared with the other Legions' Inductii Squads.
