Designer's Note. Adapted from HH3e Castellax Battle Maniple. Allegiance-neutral — usable by both Taghmata (Loyalist) and Dark Mechanicum (Heterodox) boxes. Converted from the 10e-era homebrew (itself adapted from HH3e). 11th-edition conversion, 2026-08-14: restored the Paragon of Metal / Siege Wrecker distinction that HH3e's own data confirms is real (one of the 3 base models is upgraded with a Siege Wrecker anti-vehicle melee weapon in place of Power Blades) — the Heretek Maniple and Sacred Maniple Combat Patrols' own datasheets had both flattened this into 3 identical Power-Blades-only models, dropping the unit's only anti-vehicle melee option. Both Combat Patrols corrected to match this reference card.
