Designer's Note. Built from the real HH3e digitized "Argel Tal" profile (`Word Bearers.json`) — the first and most infamous of the Gal Vorbak, a daemon-host character whose real Type is "Infantry (Unique, Command, Antigrav, Malefic)". Real stat line: M14/WS6/BS5/S5/T5/W5/I5/A6/LD10/CL9/WP9/IN8/SAV2+/INV4+, 240pts (HH3e economy) — his real M14 is the fastest Movement characteristic found on any Infantry-type model in this project (only the White Scars' Cavalry-type Golden Keshig is faster), reflecting his real Antigrav typing translated here as Fly. Priced at 180pts using the same ~0.76 character ratio applied elsewhere in this project. Daemonic Talons is real and canonically named (a plain but powerful Psychic-trait weapon in the source, no additional Special Rules listed — kept exactly that way rather than inventing extra rules text for it). Fear(1) and Feel No Pain(5+) are both real and translated directly; Deep Strike is real. The real "Malefic" sub-type (letting him join Daemon-Engine units as if he were one) is an army-building rule with no clean 11e analogue and is left unbuilt; Bulky(3) is untranslatable fluff and omitted. 11e codex update (18 Oct 2026): power armour T5 like the codex Intercessors and the Chaos Legionaries; Astartes bolt weapons S5 AP-1 (pistols [CLOSE-QUARTERS]) and codex-named weapons on the codex profile; points scaled with Captain 80→90.
