UNIT COMPOSITION

1 Captain Lucius model. Equipped with: 1 Bolt Pistol; 1 Blades of Lucius. Bolt Pistol can be exchanged for Sonic Shriekers, which grant [INFILTRATORS] to this model (real wargear, translated as an infiltration bonus rather than the source's Reaction-denial effect).

Keywords: INFANTRY, CHARACTER, EPIC HERO, CAPTAIN LUCIUS

Designer's Note. Built from the real HH3e digitized "Captain Lucius" profile (`Emperor's Children.json`) — his 30K incarnation, long before Slaanesh granted him his body-swapping curse. Real stat line: M7/WS7/BS5/S4/T4/W3/I6/A5/LD9/SAV2+/INV4+, 215pts (HH3e economy). Priced at 165pts using this Legion's ~0.76 real-to-11e ratio, matching the other Emperor's Children HQ characters. Blades of Lucius is real and canonically named (real Duellist's Edge(1), translated identically to Corswain/Garro/Fulgrim's own weapons carrying the same rule). The Faultless Blade is real and unusually mechanical in the source — it doubles the Focus Roll bonus granted by a separate "Paragon of Excellence" Gambit not otherwise present on this profile — translated here as a flat +1 Damage bonus against Character targets, preserving the "unbeatable duellist" theme without requiring the unbuilt Gambit it originally modified. Sonic shriekers is real wargear (denies Reactions to a charged unit in the source) — translated as granting this model Infiltrators, since 11e has no Reaction-point system to deny. Real BS5 is used as a small BS advantage over most Legion Captains checked so far, consistent with his ranged-focused fluff even before it wasn't yet his defining trait. 11e codex update (18 Oct 2026): power armour T5 > like the codex Intercessors and the Chaos Legionaries; Astartes bolt weapons S5 AP-1 (pistols [CLOSE-QUARTERS]) and codex-named weapons on the codex profile; points scaled with Captain 80→90.
