Great Frost Blade
Each time this model fights, if the enemy unit is greater in number than this model's unit, add 1 to this model's Attacks characteristic.

Dreams of the Death Wolf
Each time a model is destroyed from this unit during the Fight phase, keep a tally of how many models have been destroyed this way this phase. If this unit is destroyed before it fights this phase, at the end of the Fight phase its Controlling Player can select it to fight one final time, making one attack for each model destroyed from this unit this phase using the Dreams of the Death Wolf profile above; this unit is destroyed once these attacks have been resolved.

UNIT COMPOSITION

5 or 10 models. Each model is equipped with: 1 Bolt pistol; 1 Power axe. For every 5 models in this unit, 1 model's Power axe can be replaced with 1 Great Frost Blade.

Designer's Note. Built directly from the real HH3e digitized "Deathsworn Pack" profile (`Space Wolves.json`), a Heavy Assault choice, 30pts real per model, translated using the standard ~0.87 squad ratio to 26pts per model (130/260 for 5/10). Real stat line: M7/WS4/BS4/S4/T4/W2/I4/A3/LD8/CL7/WP7/IN7/SAV2+, no invulnerable save. Power axe is the default melee weapon (real Breaching(5+), translated to Anti-vehicle 5+); Great Frost Blade (real "1 in 5 may take", real Reaping Blow(1), translated directly) is kept as the signature upgrade, with Power fist and Thunder hammer alternate options omitted for card brevity. Dreams of the Death Wolf is real and is this unit's defining rule — a genuinely macabre mechanic where slain Deathsworn get one final volley of attacks from beyond the grave, using a dedicated weapon profile the real data attaches directly to the Special Rule. Translated here as a Fight-phase-end posthumous attack keyed to the number of models lost, preserving the real "the dead still fight" fantasy as closely as 11e's phase structure allows. 11e codex update (18 Oct 2026): power armour T5 like the > codex Intercessors and the Chaos Legionaries; Astartes bolt weapons S5 AP-1 (pistols [CLOSE-QUARTERS]) and codex-named weapons on the codex profile; points scaled with Intercessor Squad 80→85.
