HOMEBREW — HH-ERA (30K) — DEATH GUARD ONLY

GRAVE WARDEN TERMINATOR SQUAD

260 / 500
5 / 10 MODELS

HEAVY SUPPORT TERMINATORS

LEGIONES ASTARTES • DEATH GUARD • TRAITOR

Slower than the Deathshroud, less exalted, and entirely unbothered by either — the Grave Wardens hold the line with fist and flame long after more glamorous units have already broken.

Core
[DEEP STRIKE]

Implacable Advance
This unit cannot be selected to make a Fall Back move, and ignores modifiers to its Movement characteristic.

Designer's Note. Built from the real HH3e digitized "Grave Warden Terminator Squad" profile (`Death Guard.json`). Real stat line: Chem-master (Sergeant) and Grave Warden both M6/WS4/BS4/S4/T5/W2/I4/A3/LD8, SAV2+/INV4+ — a full point lower Weapon Skill than the Deathshroud's real WS5, but the same T5/W2 and a better invulnerable save (4+ vs the Deathshroud's 5+), a real and slightly counter-intuitive distinction (the "support" Terminator squad is more survivable than the Primarch's own bodyguard) preserved here rather than smoothed over. Priced at 220/420 for 5/10, just under Deathshroud's 230/440, matching the real HH3e economy where Grave Wardens (65pts unit + 40pts/model) come in slightly cheaper than Deathshroud (10pts unit + 45pts/model). The Heavy Alchem Flamer (real Poisoned(2+), up to 2 per unit) and Power Scythe (Chem-master-only upgrade, same real profile as Calas Typhon's and the Deathshroud's) are both real. The Assault Grenade Launcher's exact real profile wasn't resolvable in the local data (an unresolved cross-file reference) — given generic, unremarkable > stats here rather than guessed-at ones, since it's clearly not the unit's signature weapon either in the source data or on this card. 11e codex update (18 Oct 2026): toughness +1 (Terminator armour T6, bikes T6 like codex Outriders); Astartes bolt weapons S5 AP-1 (pistols [CLOSE-QUARTERS]) and codex-named weapons on the codex profile; points scaled with Terminator Squad 160→190.
