MASTER OF THE LEGION

LEGIONES ASTARTES • WORLD EATERS • TRAITOR

Not yet the Betrayer of legend — but already the finest killer his Legion has produced, and already drowning in the same red tide that will one day claim the rest of them.

Designer's Note. Built directly from the real HH3e digitized profile ("Kharn the Bloody", `World Eaters.json`) once our local BSData snapshot was refreshed with the missing per-Legion files — not from the current 40K Khârn datasheet, which carries Chaos-codex-era bonuses (Legendary Killer, Berserker Frenzy) that postdate his fall and don't belong on a 30K profile. Real HH3e stat line: M7/WS7/BS5/S4/T4/W4/I5/A5/LD10/SAV2+/INV4+, 175pts (HH3e's own economy) — translated to the Praetor-tier 11e chassis (M6"/T4/Sv2+/W5/LD5+/OC1, 4+inv), same anchor used for the World Eaters (HH) tab's Praetor card, since Khârn holds Captain rank at this point in the timeline. The real data also resolves the Gorechild question directly: Khârn's default weapon is a plain power weapon called The Cutter; Gorechild Reforged is a genuine optional relic upgrade in the source data, but its own selection rule locks it to 0 whenever Angron is in the same roster — mechanically confirming that Khârn only carries a blade named Gorechild when Angron himself is not on the table, exactly the distinction flagged during Angron's build. Reaping Blow and Precision (translated here as Duellist's Eye) are both real named rules on this profile, translated into 11e idiom rather than invented from scratch. 11e codex update (18 Oct 2026): power armour T5 like the codex Intercessors and the Chaos Legionaries; Astartes bolt weapons S5 AP-1 (pistols [CLOSE-QUARTERS]) and codex-named weapons on the codex profile; points scaled with Captain 80→90.
