HOMEBREW — HH-ERA (30K) — DEATH GUARD OR KNIGHTS ERRANT

NATHANIEL GARRO

135 POINTS

BATTLE-CAPTAIN, 7TH COMPANY

LEGIONES ASTARTES • DEATH GUARD OR KNIGHTS ERRANT

He should have died at Isstvan III with the rest of the loyalists his own primarch turned on. He didn't. What he became instead — witness, hunter, and finally agent of a hidden war — started with that survival.

This model can be fielded with either the Death Guard Faction Keyword (before Isstvan III — a still-loyal Legion officer) or the Knights Errant Faction Keyword (after it — Malcador's secret agent, hunting the Traitor Legions he once served beside). Same stats and points either way; see Leader below for the one rule that changes.

Duellist's Edge
Each time this model is within Engagement Range of one or more enemy Character models, this model has the Fights First ability.

Leader
If this model has the Death Guard Faction Keyword, it can be attached to one of the following units: Tactical Squad, Veteran Tactical Squad, Despoiler Squad, or Breacher Squad (Power Armour-equipped models only). If this model has the Knights Errant Faction Keyword, it cannot be attached to any unit — Garro fights alone now.

Warlord
If this model is your Warlord, once per battle, in your Command phase, you can gain 1 Command Point.

UNIT COMPOSITION

1 Nathaniel Garro model. Equipped with: 1 Paragon Bolter; 1 Libertas.

Keywords: INFANTRY, CHARACTER, EPIC HERO, NATHANIEL GARRO

Faction Keywords: LEGIONES ASTARTES, and either DEATH GUARD or KNIGHTS ERRANT (chosen when the model is added to your army)

Designer's Note. Built from the real HH3e digitized "Nathaniel Garro" profile — he lives in `Knights-Errant.json`, his own dedicated faction file (Malcador's secret loyalist agents, founded after the Heresy began), not `Death Guard.json`. Same situation as Endryd Haar for the World Eaters: the real profile is inherently his post-defection form, so this card follows the same dual-Faction-Keyword pattern established there rather than inventing an undocumented separate pre-Heresy card. Real stat line: M7/WS6/BS5/S4/T4/W4/I5/A5/LD10/SAV2+/INV4+, 160pts (HH3e economy) — nearly identical to Khârn the Bloody's real profile (175pts, same T4/W4/I5/A5/LD10), just one point lower Weapon Skill, confirming Khârn's already-built 11e chassis (M6"/T4/Sv2+/W5/LD5+/OC1, 4+inv, the Praetor anchor) is the right one for Garro too. Priced at 120pts, scaled from Khârn's 130pts by the real 160/175 point ratio between the two. Both weapons are real and canonically named: Libertas (his signature power > sword) and the Paragon Bolter (a master-crafted relic bolter), with the real Shred(6+)/Critical Hit(6+) special rules translated to [DEVASTATING WOUNDS]/[LETHAL HITS] per this project's established convention. Duellist's Edge is a real named rule (a Challenge Focus Roll bonus in HH3e's own system) translated as Fights First specifically against enemy Characters, capturing "wins single combats" without inventing new math. The Leader split (Legion-attachable pre-Heresy, solitary post-defection) is an original addition — the real data doesn't specify either way — chosen to mirror the "was an officer, is now alone" arc the Faction Keyword choice already implies. 11e codex update (18 Oct 2026): power armour T5 like the codex Intercessors and the Chaos Legionaries; Astartes bolt weapons S5 AP-1 (pistols [CLOSE-QUARTERS]) and codex-named weapons on the codex profile; points scaled with Captain 80→90.
