Designer's Note. Built from the real HH3e digitized "Numerologist Cabal" profile (`Thousand Sons.json`, modelled as "Life Ward") — a support-and-protection squad, distinct from every combat-focused Cabal built elsewhere on this roster. Real: 4-9 models, 15pts/model (HH3e economy), no default power weapon listed in the source (a genuine, deliberate gap — Numerologists are support specialists, not duellists). Priced at 75/135pts for 5/9, the squad's own real minimum/maximum size (no 10-model option exists in the source, unlike most other squads in this project). Life Ward is this project's own name for the squad's real protective function, translated as a Feel No Pain aura for nearby Thousand Sons Psyker units — the source data did not provide a single clean named rule to translate literally, so this ability was built to match the unit's real fluff role (its own name) rather than left blank. 11e codex update (18 Oct 2026): power armour T5 like the codex Intercessors and the Chaos Legionaries; Astartes bolt weapons S5 AP-1 (pistols [CLOSE-QUARTERS]) and codex-named weapons on the codex profile; points scaled with Intercessor Squad 80→85.
