VANGUARD CLOSE-ASSAULT LEGIONARIES

LEGIONES ASTARTES • WORLD EATERS • TRAITOR

No pistols worth mentioning, no ranged doctrine to speak of — Rampagers exist to close the distance and open the enemy line with whatever heavy, bladed thing they're carrying that day.

> Designer's Note. Built from the real HH3e digitized "Rampager Squad" profile (`World Eaters.json` + the shared "Caedere Weapons" wargear list in `Weapons.json`) once our local BSData snapshot was refreshed. Real stat line: Rampager M7/WS5/BS4/S4/T4/W2/I4/A2/LD8, Champion the same but A3/LD9, both SAV3+ with no invulnerable save — translated to the 11e Despoiler Squad-tier chassis (M7"/T4/Sv3+/W2/LD7+/OC2) since both represent Legion-pattern power-armoured infantry, with the World Eaters' faster Move and lower Leadership (higher target number in 11e's roll-under-becomes-roll-over convention) preserved as the point of difference. All four Caedere > Weapons options are genuinely real and unit-wide in the source data (not sergeant-only); simplified here to "the whole unit picks one" rather than true per-model mixing, both for card-space and to match this project's established squad-card convention (Despoiler/Saturnine/Breacher all present one shared loadout with sergeant-only variance). The real Vanguard(3) rule (pre-battle repositioning) is translated as Scouts 3", and the real Impact(S) charge-bonus rule is translated directly as a Strength-on-charge bonus. Not present on the real profile and NOT invented: no invulnerable save, no ranged weapon beyond a plain Bolt Pistol — Rampagers are a pure melee unit by design, both in the source data and here. 11e codex update (18 Oct 2026): power armour T5 like the codex Intercessors and the Chaos Legionaries; Astartes bolt weapons S5 AP-1 (pistols [CLOSE-QUARTERS]) and codex-named weapons on the codex profile; points scaled with Assault Intercessor Squad 75→85.
