SONS OF HORUS LINE COMPANY

LEGIONES ASTARTES • SONS OF HORUS • TRAITOR

The Sons of Horus never needed to be the fastest Legion, or the most disciplined, or the most zealous. They only ever needed to arrive, and the Reavers always arrive.

Designer's Note. Built from the real HH3e digitized "Reaver Attack Squad" profile (`Sons of Horus.json`) — the Sons of Horus' standard line company, their equivalent of Despoiler/Tactical squads seen elsewhere. Real stat line: Reaver M7/WS5/BS4/S4/T4/W2/A3/LD8/SAV3+ (no invuln), Reaver Chieftain (Sergeant) the same but LD9, both 22pts/model (HH3e economy). Priced at 85/165pts for 5/10, in line with other Legions' generic Troops squads. Real Precision(6+) is unusual for a rank-and-file squad and translated directly to the [PRECISION] core ability — the Sons of Horus' doctrine of targeted, surgical violence rather than blunt attrition. Vanguard(3+) is a real Victory-Point/deployment-scoring rule with no clean single-unit translation, left unbuilt. The real profile's full options list (special/heavy weapon swaps, lightning claws for the Chieftain, a vexilla, Legion Equipment) was trimmed for card space to the core chainaxe/bolt pistol/power sword loadout, matching the simplification already applied to other generic Legion squads in this project. 11e codex update (18 Oct 2026): power armour T5 like the codex Intercessors and the Chaos Legionaries; Astartes bolt weapons S5 AP-1 (pistols [CLOSE-QUARTERS]) and codex-named weapons on the codex profile; points scaled with Intercessor Squad 80→85.
