TERMINATOR-ARMOURED BERSERKERS

LEGIONES ASTARTES • WORLD EATERS • TRAITOR

Every one of them volunteered for the deepest rite of the Nails, the one that leaves nothing behind but the need to kill. They fight with no guard up at all — there's simply nothing left in them to protect.

Slow and Purposeful
This unit's Advance and Charge rolls are always treated as a 6.

Heedless
Each time this unit is eligible to declare a charge, it must do so if able, and must target the closest eligible enemy unit.

Ravening Madmen
Each time an enemy model makes a melee attack that targets this unit, you can re-roll that attack's Hit roll. This unit cannot be joined by a Character model.

UNIT COMPOSITION

5 or 10 models: 1 Devoured (Sergeant) and 4-9 Red Butchers, in Terminator armour. All models are equipped with Butcher Power Axes (or paired Lightning Claws, +10 pts per model, or a Combi-Bolter and Butcher Power Axe). The Devoured can instead be equipped with Butcher Chainfists.

Designer's Note. Built from the real HH3e digitized "Red Butchers" profile (`World Eaters.json`) once our local BSData snapshot was refreshed. Real stat line: Red Butcher M6/WS5/BS4/S4/T5/W2/I4/A2/LD12, Devoured (the Sergeant, named for having volunteered for the deepest rite of the Nails) the same but A3, both SAV2+/INV4+ — Terminator-tier protection despite a lighter "Bulky (2)" footprint than full Cataphractii/Tartaros/Saturnine plate in the source data, translated here onto the existing Saturnine Terminator Squad's 11e chassis (M5"/T5/Sv2+/W3/4+inv) as the closest in-project Terminator-tier anchor, priced slightly below it (240/460 vs 250/480) to account for narrower weapon flexibility and this unit's own drawback rule. That drawback is real and deliberately kept: Ravening Madmen, in the source text, makes opponents treat the unit's Weapon Skill as a flat 3 in melee regardless of their actual skill — since 11e's Hit rolls are entirely attacker-driven rather than defender-WS-driven, this is translated as a Hit re-roll granted to attackers targeting this unit in melee, preserving the "no defensive discipline left, fights on pure bloodlust" trade-off rather than smoothing it into a pure buff. The real rule's own "cannot be joined by a Character" restriction (no Leader ability exists on this unit) is kept for the same reason. Butcher Power Axes, Butcher Chainfists, and the Slow and Purposeful / Heedless rules are all real named entries, translated directly rather than invented. 11e codex update (18 Oct 2026): toughness +1 (Terminator armour T6, bikes T6 like codex Outriders); Astartes bolt weapons S5 AP-1 (pistols [CLOSE-QUARTERS]) and codex-named weapons on the codex profile; points scaled with Terminator Squad 160→190.
