LEGIONES ASTARTES • IRON WARRIORS • TRAITOR

The Tyrant pattern was never built for a fair fight in the open — it was built to stand in a breach and not move until every last defender on the other side was dead.

Faction Keywords: LEGIONES ASTARTES, IRON WARRIORS

Designer's Note. Built from the real HH3e digitized "Tyrant Siege Terminator Squad" profile (`Iron Warriors.json`) — this Legion's dedicated breach-and-hold Terminator squad, distinct from generic Cataphractii/Tartaros patterns used elsewhere. Real: 80pts unit fee (HH3e economy), 5-10 models. Priced at 230/450pts for 5/10, matching the established Terminator-tier band used across this project. Firing Protocols(2) and Support Unit(1) are real Victory-Point/army-composition rules with no clean single-card translation, left unbuilt, consistent with how similar real rules have been handled on every other Legion's roster. Implacable Advance and Slow and Purposeful are both real, translated using this project's standard renderings. 11e codex update (18 Oct 2026): toughness +1 (Terminator armour T6, bikes T6 like codex Outriders); Astartes bolt weapons S5 AP-1 (pistols [CLOSE-QUARTERS]) and codex-named weapons on the codex profile; points scaled with Terminator Squad 160→190.
