Faction Keywords: LEGIONES ASTARTES, WORD BEARERS

Designer's Note. Built from the real HH3e digitized "Zardu Layak" profile (`Word Bearers.json`) — an Anointed of the Serrated Sun and one of the Legion's most feared possessed sorcerer-warriors, real Type "Infantry (Unique, Command, Malefic)". Real stat line: M7/WS5/BS5/S4/T4/W4/I5/A3/LD11/CL10/WP9/IN7/SAV2+/INV4+, 180pts (HH3e economy), priced at 135pts using this project's ~0.76 character ratio. The Azurda Char'is is real and canonically named (real IM+1 translated to Fights First; real Force(D) translated to Devastating Wounds, matching this project's standard Force-weapon rendering). Hatred(Loyalist) is real and translated directly. Soul Binding is a real, named Psychic Power (granted by his real "Binder of Souls" rule alongside a second power, Breach the Veil, not built separately) — in the source it lets him seize control of an enemy model that fails a Resistance Check; translated here as a once-per-battle ability to disable an enemy Character in melee, preserving the "breaks an opponent's will mid-fight" fantasy without porting HH3e's model-control sub-system. 11e codex update (18 Oct 2026): power armour T5 like the codex Intercessors and the Chaos Legionaries; Astartes bolt weapons S5 AP-1 (pistols [CLOSE-QUARTERS]) and codex-named weapons on the codex profile; points scaled with Captain 80→90.
