How to use

Extra model options for GW's Death Korps of Krieg datasheet. Each takes the place of a Death Korps Trooper (it counts towards the unit's Troopers and uses the official Death Korps statline). Each can be taken once per 10-model unit (twice in a 20-model unit), at no extra points.

Death Korps Bruiser

Equipped with: lasgun; trench club. Bruiser: Once per battle, when this model would lose a wound as the result of a melee attack, that wound is not lost.

Death Korps Confidant

Equipped with: lasgun; close combat weapon. Second in Command: While this unit does not contain a Death Korps Watchmaster model, you can re-roll Battle-shock tests taken for this unit.

Death Korps Zealot

Equipped with: lasgun; close combat weapon. Uplifting Primer: While this model is in this unit, each time a model in this unit makes a melee attack, you can re-roll a Hit roll of 1.

Death Korps Sapper

Equipped with: lasgun; close combat weapon. Remote Detonator: Once per battle, in your Shooting phase, when this unit is selected to shoot, you can select one enemy unit within 6" of and visible to this model. Roll one D6: on a 2+, that unit suffers D3 mortal wounds. This model cannot make any other attacks this phase.

Death Korps Spotter

Equipped with: close combat weapon; mortar barrage.

Designer's Note — Kill Team Kit

Brings the rest of the Kill Team "Death Korps" (2024) box into 40k. GW's 40k Krieg kit already covers the Watchmaster, Troopers, medi-pack, vox-caster and special weapons; the Bruiser, Confidant, Zealot, Sapper and Spotter operatives had no 40k rules. NFLB adds them as model options inside the official datasheet, so they follow GW's statline and points.
