HAND OF THE MAGUS

GENESTEALER CULTS | WARHAMMER 40,000 | 11TH EDITION

Pouring up from the Nykol Consortium under-mines of Lasmar III, this twisted horde of Genestealer Cultists seek to throw off the chains of their Imperial oppressors. They are led by the cunning Magus Veridielle, who has forged a ragtag collection of mutants, monsters and stolen mining equipment into a powerful army of rebellion. The Magus' warriors are fanatically loyal, and would follow her even unto their own destruction. Given their likely eventual fate, this may be fortunate…

ARMY RULES

CULT AMBUSH

Genestealer Cults keep their fighting strength carefully hidden from their oppressors until the glorious Day of Ascension arrives. Even as battle rages, reinforcements slip from the shadows or spill up from the dark places below, called to war by the Broodmind.

Each time a unit with this ability is destroyed, roll one D6, adding 3 to the result if it is a Battleline unit. On a 4+, that unit is placed into Cult Ambush and you can place one Cult Ambush marker anywhere on the battlefield that is more than 9" horizontally away from all enemy units (if this is not possible, no marker is placed).

If an enemy model (excluding Aircraft models) ends any kind of move within 9" of a Cult Ambush marker you placed, that Cult Ambush marker is removed from the battlefield. At the end of the Reinforcements step of your opponent's next Movement phase, for each of your Cult Ambush markers that is still on the battlefield, you can select one unit from your army that is in Cult Ambush and set that destroyed unit back up on the battlefield using the Deep Strike ability, containing all of its models with their full wounds remaining and with at least one of those models touching that Cult Ambush marker (that Cult Ambush marker is then removed from the battlefield).

Characters that are attached to a unit with this ability are not returned alongside that unit should it return to the battlefield as described above (only the Bodyguard unit returns). When playing a Combat Patrol battle, in battle rounds four and five, you cannot set up any units that are in Cult Ambush on the battlefield.
