[LEADER] [STEALTH] [INFILTRATORS] (While not attached to a unit, this model also has [LONE OPERATIVE].)

Master of Recon

While Sergeant Naaman is leading a Scouts Squad, that unit's Scout move increases from 6" to 9", and the unit gains the Stealth ability. Additionally, models in that unit re-roll Hit rolls of 1 with ranged attacks.

Hunter's Mark

At the start of the first battle round, after deployment, select one enemy Character model. For the rest of the battle, each time Sergeant Naaman makes a ranged or melee attack against that Character, he re-rolls the Hit roll and the Wound roll.

Silent Stalker

Enemy units cannot benefit from the Stealth ability or the Cover rule against this model's ranged attacks.

UNIT COMPOSITION

1 Sergeant Naaman model. This model is equipped with: 1 Stalker bolt rifle; 1 bolt pistol; 1 combat blade.

Designer's Note. Sourced from Codex Dark Angels (2007) — "Master of Recon" / Ravenwing Scout-Sergeant.

The design follows the Sergeant Telion precedent: a named Scout Sergeant Leader character that joins a canonical Scouts Squad and amplifies them (better Scout move, Stealth, ranged re-rolls). Solo, he is a Lone Operative sniper-character with Precision + Lethal Hits + an "ignore Stealth/Cover" rule. No Ravenwing keyword (he predates the Ravenwing-as-bike-wing identity, was a foot-scout); listed under Dark Angels faction with Ravenwing flavor in the lore subtitle. 11th-edition verification, 2026-08-31: checked current 11e BSData directly — no match for "Naaman" anywhere; still genuinely unsupported. No stat corrections possible; kept as-is from the prior 10e conversion pass.
