Fidelity is Aun'Shi's masterwork honour blade — a relic earned through countless duels in the Mor'tonium arena and during the Damocles Crusade.

ABILITIES

Core

Leader, Fights First.

Faction

For the Greater Good.

Leader

This model can be attached to one of the following units: Strike Team, Breacher Team, Pathfinder Team.

Blademaster

At the start of the Fight phase, choose one effect for this model until the end of the phase:

- Perfect Strike: Fidelity gains AP -2 instead of -1 (so AP -3 total).
- Defensive Stance: This model can re-roll failed invulnerable saves.

Inspirational Defiance [AURA]

While a friendly T'au Empire unit is within 6" of this model, that unit can re-roll Battle-shock tests, and improves its Leadership characteristic by 1 (to a minimum of 4+). When such a unit is targeted by a Charge move, after the charge is declared but before the charge roll, you can roll one D6: on a 4+, that unit fires Overwatch as if it were the appropriate phase (free, does not cost CP).

Invocation of the Elements

In your Command phase, select one of the following invocations to be in effect on this model and any unit it is leading until the start of your next Command phase. You may select a different invocation each turn:

- Calm of the Tides: The unit can be selected to shoot or charge after Falling Back.
- Storm of Fire: Each time a model in the unit makes a ranged attack, an unmodified Wound roll of 6 inflicts 1 mortal wound in addition to normal damage.
- Sense of Stone: Each model in the unit has Feel No Pain 6+.
- Zephyr's Grace: The unit gains Stealth (subtract 1 from Hit rolls against it).

Failure Is Not An Option

While this model is on the battlefield, your army gains 1 Command Point at the start of your Command phase (max 1 per turn from this ability).

Designer's Note

Homebrew — 9th Ed source. Aun'Shi is the legendary Vior'la Ethereal who survived the gladiatorial pits of Mor'tonium and personally led the defence of his sept through the Damocles Crusade. He is unique among Ethereals as a master swordsman. The standard 10e Ethereal datasheet is canon, but lacks Aun'Shi's Blademaster, named Fidelity blade, and full four-pillar Invocation of the Elements suite. Stats are built from the 9th Ed profile (M6/WS2+/W5/A5) updated to 10e scaling, with Fidelity given Sustained Hits and a phase-choice between AP boost or invuln re-roll. Inspirational Defiance preserves his iconic Vior'la rally aura and Overwatch trigger. Use this card in any Vior'la Sept-themed force.
