The Hellglaive is a two-handed polearm-blade designed for use atop a Skyboard at full speed. Its edge moves so fast the air screams in its wake.

ABILITIES

Core

Leader, Deep Strike, Fly, Jump Pack.

Faction

Power From Pain.

Leader

This model can be attached to one of the following units: Hellions, Reavers, Scourges.

Shadow Field

This model has a 4+ Invulnerable Save. The first time this model fails an Invulnerable save in any phase, its Invulnerable save is permanently reduced to 6+ for the rest of the battle.

Hit & Run

This model and any unit it leads can declare a Fall Back move in any of your Movement phases AND still shoot, charge, or fight that turn (as if it had not Fallen Back).

Skyboard Mastery

When this model is part of a unit of Hellions, the unit gains the [LONE OPERATIVE] ability while at full strength (≥10 models). On a turn this model finished a Charge move, attacks made by Hellglaive gain +1 to the Wound roll.

Lord of the Sky-City [AURA]

While a friendly Hellions unit is within 6" of this model, that unit re-rolls Charge rolls and gains +1 to its Move characteristic.

Designer's Note

Homebrew — 5th Ed (Codex Dark Eldar 2010). Non-BSData source: dropped from BSData before 7e. Baron Sathonyx is the Drukhari Hellions character — gave Hellions an HQ option in 5e (when they were normally just Fast Attack). Stats anchor on 10e Hellions-tier (M12/T3/Sv4+/4++) with Hellion-specific buffs. The canonical 5e 'Hellions become Troops if Sathonyx is Warlord' rule is replaced with the modern 10e equivalent — Skyboard Mastery + Lord of the Sky-City auras that scale Hellions' effectiveness. Hit & Run preserves his canonical post-Fall-Back ability. Hellglaive's EXTRA ATTACKS keyword reflects the polearm's reach.
