Schaeffer's bionic eye sees through the bullet-haze every shot a moment before it leaves the chamber. His bionic right arm has crushed the gorget of a Traitor Astartes captain. The plasma pistol is a relic of his Cadian Hostile-Environment commission — once issued to him, never returned.

ABILITIES

Core

Leader.

Faction

Voice of Command.

Leader

This model can be attached to one of the following units: Last Chancers, Penal Legion Squad, Veteran Guardsmen, Cadian Shock Troops, Krieg Combat Engineers. Schaeffer is most often attached to the Last Chancers, but the Departamento Munitorum has been known to second him to any condemned squad it needs to make a use of.

Iron Discipline [AURA]

While a friendly Penal Legion or Last Chancers unit is within 6" of this model, that unit automatically passes Battle-shock tests and can ignore any or all modifiers to its Leadership characteristic. Schaeffer's presence is the difference between condemned men running and condemned men fighting.

Iron Hand (Once per Battle)

In your Command phase, if this model was destroyed during the previous turn, you may restore it to the battlefield with 3 wounds remaining, set up wholly within 6" of where it fell and more than 3" from any enemy unit. Schaeffer's bionics have brought him back from worse. Once per battle.

Bionic Eye

Schaeffer's plasma pistol has the [PRECISION] ability (the augmetic auspex couples directly to the weapon's targeting cogitator). Once per battle, in any phase, you can re-roll one Hit roll, one Wound roll, or one Saving throw made for this model.

Designer's Note

Homebrew — 3rd-5th Ed source. Colonel "Iron Hand" Schaeffer commanded the Last Chancers across 3rd Ed Codex: Imperial Guard (1999) through 5th Ed Codex: Imperial Guard (2009), inspiring Gav Thorpe's six-novel series (13th Legion, Kill Team, Annihilation Squad, Honour Guard, etc.). His 3rd-5th Ed identity was four-fold: (1) Iron Discipline keeping the unit fearless; (2) bionic eye + arm augmetics with bonus attacks and re-rolls; (3) "iron will" survivability tied to the bionics; (4) command versatility (could lead Last Chancers OR any IG squad). This 10e conversion preserves all four: Iron Discipline aura (auto-pass Battle-shock for Penal units), Bionic Eye (Precision + once-per-battle re-roll), Iron Hand (literal return-from-the-dead once-per-battle), and broad Leader attachment options. Dropped from 6th Ed onward; this homebrew restores the iconic penal officer to 10e.
