Six condemned soldiers. Each carries the weapon they once trained on — the only thing the Departmento Munitorum trusted them with after the courts-martial. They march at the front of every Tyranid hive, every Chaos breach, every promethium-soaked forge-world. They have nothing to lose because nothing remains.

ABILITIES

Faction

Voice of Command (the squad benefits from Officer Orders but cannot issue them).

Six Specialists

The squad consists of 1 Lieutenant Kage (squad leader, W2, laspistol + power sword + medi-pack) + 1 Brick (heavy bolter) + 1 Gunnar (sniper long-las) + 1 Demolition Man "Demo" (meltagun + meltabombs) + 1 Bionics Man (boltgun + bionic arm) + 1 Una the Madwoman (flamer). Each model uses only their assigned weapon profile.

Suicide Mission

During the first battle round in which this unit shoots OR fights, models in the unit re-roll Hit rolls of 1, Wound rolls of 1, and a single failed saving throw. The squad has been told this mission is their last — they fight accordingly.

No Quarter Asked, None Given

This unit cannot Fall Back. It automatically passes Battle-shock tests. Each time a model in this unit would be destroyed, before removing it from play, roll one D6: on a 6, that model can make one final melee attack or shoot one weapon (counts as the Pistol type if ranged) before being removed.

Medi-pack (Lieutenant Kage)

In your Command phase, while Lieutenant Kage is alive, restore 1 lost wound to one model in this unit OR to one friendly Astra Militarum Character model within 3".

Squad Composition

6 named specialists as listed above. The unit cannot be reinforced or replaced. Once a specialist is destroyed, they're gone — no Penal Legion replacement, no draft. (When attached by Colonel Schaeffer, treat Schaeffer's "Last Chancers" Leader keyword as overriding all other attachment rules.)

Designer's Note

Homebrew — 3rd-5th Ed source. The Last Chancers were Imperial Guard's elite penal squad — six named, specialist-equipped condemned veterans led by Colonel Schaeffer. They were the inspiration for Gav Thorpe's six-novel series. Their 3rd-5th Ed identity was three-fold: (1) each model a named specialist with a unique weapon and stat-line variation; (2) Suicide Mission attitude — fearless, no retreat, fight while alive; (3) One-shot squad — once dead, gone, no Imperial Guard replacement pipeline because the squad is unofficial. This 10e conversion preserves all three: six named specialist weapon profiles, Suicide Mission first-strike re-rolls, No Quarter Asked never-fall-back + once-per-model death-strike on 6+. The composition is fixed (cannot reinforce, must use all six listed models). Pair with Colonel Schaeffer (separate homebrew card) for the full thematic squad — or send them in on their own as a pure suicide unit.
