Wyrddvanes channel their power as a single mass — three minds straining together to do what one trained psyker could manage alone. The risk of warp-feedback grows with every shot.

ABILITIES

Faction

Voice of Command (this unit can be the target of Orders).

Pooled Wyrddpower

Pooled Wyrddpower's A characteristic equals the number of Wyrddvane Psyker models in this unit at the start of the Shooting phase (e.g., 3 attacks at full strength of 3 models, 6 attacks at 6 models, 1 attack at 1 model). Override the printed D6 with this value. Untrained psykers pool their potential — a full coterie casts more reliably, while a depleted one can barely flicker a torch.

Empyric Feedback

Each time a model in this unit is destroyed by a Hazardous test on Pooled Wyrddpower (or by any Psychic attack), each unit (friend or foe) within 6" of the destroyed model takes D3 mortal wounds. The warp does not release its dead quietly.

Strength in Numbers

While this unit contains 3 or more Wyrddvane Psyker models, the unit has the Stealth ability (subtract 1 from Hit rolls against it) and may re-roll Battle-shock tests. As Wyrddvanes are killed, their psychic harmony shatters and they become easy targets.

Sanctioned Acolytes

This unit may be targeted by friendly Astra Militarum Officer Orders (it has the Regiment keyword for this purpose). However, this unit cannot be the Bearer of an Enhancement.

Designer's Note

Homebrew — 8th Ed source. Wyrddvane Psykers are conscripted, untrained psykers from the Black Ships — pre-Sanctioned, pre-Primaris Psyker apprentices used as expendable warp-fodder. The 8th/9th Ed datasheet was a 3+ model squad with a pooled-strength psychic mechanic and an explosive Perils trigger. The current 10e Primaris Psyker covers the lone trained-psyker role, but is a single character — it does not represent the squad. This homebrew preserves the 3-model squad identity: cheap (55 pts), explicit pool-power scaling tied to model count, Stealth/re-roll Battle-shock while at full strength, and a vicious 6" mortal-wound feedback when one of them pops. Run as a screen unit or a cheap psychic delivery for Pooled Wyrddpower.
