ABILITIES

Core

Deadly Demise D6, Feel No Pain 4+, Smoke.

Faction

Oath of Moment.

Wrought by Vulkan

Each time an attack would lose this model a wound, roll one D6: on a 4+ the wound is ignored. (This is in addition to its 5+ Invulnerable Save.)

Ancient Beyond Measure

This model cannot be your Warlord while any other Character in your army can serve as Warlord. It can still gain a Warlord Trait when fielded in an all-Dreadnought force.

Furnace-Forged Fury

Each time this model destroys an enemy Monster or Vehicle, until the end of the battle Burning Wrath and the Dreadfire heavy flamers gain +1 to the Damage characteristic.

Smoke Launchers

Once per battle, in your Movement phase, this model can activate Smoke. Until the start of your next turn, ranged attacks targeting this model suffer -1 to the Hit roll, and this model cannot be selected to shoot.

Designer's Note

Homebrew — 8th Ed source. Bray'arth Ashmantle is the most ancient and most lethal Dreadnought of the Salamanders Chapter — a Contemptor variant pattern unique to Nocturne. Stats anchor on the 10e Redemptor Dreadnought baseline (T10/W10/Sv2+) with +1 Sv tier reflecting his master-wrought plate, and FNP 4+ representing the 8e 'damage-ignored on 4+' rule. Pts adjusted down from 8e's 325 (Forge World inflation) to ~210 to match canonical 10e dreadnought pricing. The Wrought by Vulkan double-save preserves his canonical immortality, while Furnace-Forged Fury is new homebrew flavor — Ashmantle gains heat as he kills, capturing the lore image of him glowing like a forge after each engagement. 11e codex update (18 Oct 2026): statline unchanged; Astartes bolt weapons S5 AP-1 (pistols [CLOSE-QUARTERS]) and codex-named weapons on the codex profile; points scaled with Dreadnought [Legends] 135→135.
