ABILITIES

CORE

Leader (may join a Scouts Squad), Stealth, Infiltrators. While not attached to a unit, this model also has Lone Operative.

FACTION

Oath of Moment.

MASTER OF RECON

While Sergeant Naaman is leading a Scouts Squad, that unit's Scout move increases from 6" to 9", and the unit gains the Stealth ability. Additionally, models in that unit re-roll Hit rolls of 1 with ranged attacks.

HUNTER'S MARK

At the start of the first battle round, after deployment, select one enemy Character model. For the rest of the battle, each time Sergeant Naaman makes a ranged or melee attack against that Character, he re-rolls the Hit roll and the Wound roll.

SILENT STALKER

Enemy units cannot benefit from the Stealth ability or the Cover rule against this model's ranged attacks. Naaman has hunted them since the deployment line.

DESIGNER'S NOTE

Homebrew — 4th Ed source (Codex Dark Angels 2007 — "Master of Recon" / Ravenwing Scout-Sergeant). Sergeant Naaman is the Ravenwing's premier scout-sniper sergeant, known for stalking targets across whole campaigns before the killing shot — the Dark Angels' answer to Sergeant Telion. The HB design follows the Telion precedent precisely: a named Scout Sergeant Leader character that joins a canonical Scouts Squad and amplifies them (better Scout move, Stealth, ranged re-rolls). Solo, he is a 75-pt Lone Operative sniper-character with Precision + Lethal Hits + an "ignore Stealth/Cover" rule. Statline T4/Sv4+/W4 is named-Scout-Sergeant tier (canonical Scout Sergeant is W2; Telion was W3 in 9e). No Ravenwing keyword (he predates the Ravenwing-as-bike-wing identity, was a foot-scout); listed under Dark Angels faction with Ravenwing flavor in the lore subtitle. 11e codex update (18 Oct 2026): power armour T5 like the codex Intercessors and the Chaos Legionaries; Astartes bolt weapons S5 AP-1 (pistols [CLOSE-QUARTERS]) and codex-named weapons on the codex profile; points scaled with Captain 80→90.
