SLAUGHTER TALON

CHAOS KNIGHTS | WARHAMMER 40,000 | 11TH EDITION

The Infernal household's War Dogs have been turned loose to stalk the wilds and hunt for fast-moving prey. A duo of War Dogs, together known as the Slaughter Talon, has closed upon its quarry, outmanoeuvring them and cutting off their escape. Now the hunters circle the prey hungrily, preparing to rush in for the kill. Energised by the prospect of bloodshed, the Slaughter Talon's Knight suits thrum with daemonic energies, their Warp-corrupted systems providing pilot and mechanism with greater speed, aggression and resilience.

ENHANCEMENTS

FRENZIED TO THE LAST — Slaughter Talon Zarkys and Helskarr unit only
If the bearer is destroyed by a melee attack and it has not fought this phase, roll one D6: on a 2+, do not remove it from play. The destroyed model can fight after the attacking unit has finished making its attacks, and it is then removed from play. When making its attacks, the destroyed model is considered to have 1 wound remaining for the purpose of its Damaged ability.

FERAL HUNTER — Slaughter Talon Karthon and Fireghest unit only
At the start of the Deploy Armies step, you can set the bearer up in Strategic Reserves instead of setting it up on the battlefield. Each time the bearer is set up on the battlefield from Strategic Reserves, it can be set up anywhere on the battlefield wholly within 9" of one or more battlefield edges and not within 6" of one or more enemy units. When doing so, if the bearer is set up within 9" of one or more enemy units, until the end of the turn, it is not eligible to declare a charge.
