PROTECTORS OF AUN'SHAR

T'AU EMPIRE | WARHAMMER 40,000 | 11TH EDITION

It is the belief of the Ethereal Aun'Shar that he can best spread the light of the Greater Good by taking to the battlefields of the 41st Millennium and overseeing the destruction of those foes who cannot be enlightened through diplomacy. The Fire caste warriors who fight at his side venerate their leader and follow his commands without hesitation.

ARMY RULES

DRONES
If you have upgraded a model to have a drone, place a Drone token next to your model as a reminder. These do not count as models for any rules purposes.

Marker Drone

The bearer's unit has the Markerlight keyword and can act as an Observer unit for another unit even if it Advanced this turn.

FOR THE GREATER GOOD
If your Army Faction is T'au Empire, at the start of your Shooting phase you can select units from your army with this ability to become Observer units.

During your Shooting phase, for each Observer unit from your army that has not been selected to shoot this phase and is eligible to shoot (excluding Fortification and Battle-shocked units), select one enemy unit that is visible to be marked as their Spotted unit until the end of the phase. Each enemy unit can only be marked as a Spotted unit once per phase.

Units from your army with the For the Greater Good ability (excluding Observer units) are Guided units while targeting one or more Spotted units. Until the end of the phase, each time a model from your army in a Guided unit makes an attack that targets a Spotted unit, improve the Ballistic Skill characteristic of that attack by 1 and, if the Spotted unit was marked by an Observer unit that has the Markerlight keyword, that attack has the [IGNORES COVER] ability.

DETACHMENT RULE

PROTECTORS OF AUN'SHAR
Detachment Points: To use this detachment you must spend 1 DP.

MARKED FOR DESTRUCTION
Each time a unit from this detachment is a Guided unit, until the end of the phase, ranged attacks made by models in that unit that target their Spotted unit have the [LETHAL HITS] ability.

FORCE DISPOSITIONS
This detachment has access to the following Force Disposition: Disruption.
