COMBAT PATROL

THE GNAWING TIDE

TYRANIDS | WARHAMMER 40,000 | 11TH EDITION

Before the Combat Patrol format existed, this box was simply how a hive fleet arrived: a Hive Tyrant's synaptic pulse dragging a swarm of Termagants and Warriors in its wake, with Ripper Swarms trailing to strip the dead. The Gnawing Tide is a splinter brood that never bothered waiting for reinforcement — it consumes what it finds and grows as it goes, its Rippers surfacing from tunnelled ground only once there is biomass worth surfacing for. This is a homebrew Tyranids Combat Patrol built from the earliest Tyranids box released before the Combat Patrol format existed, adapted to the 11th-edition Combat Patrol framework. Formatted to match the No Figure Left Behind Combat Patrol archive.

ARMY RULES

SHADOW IN THE WARP
Once per battle, in either player's Command phase, if one or more units from your army with this ability are on the battlefield, you can unleash the Shadow in the Warp. When you do, each enemy unit on the battlefield must take a Battle-shock test. Each time an enemy unit takes such a test, if it is within 6" of one or more Synapse units from your army, subtract 1 from that test.

SYNAPSE
While a Tyranids unit from your army is within 6" of one or more friendly Synapse models, that unit is within Synapse Range of your army. While within Synapse Range: each time that unit takes a Battle-shock test, take that test on 3D6 instead of 2D6; each time a model in that unit makes a melee attack, add 1 to the Strength characteristic of that attack.

DETACHMENT RULE

THE GNAWING TIDE
Detachment Points: To use this detachment you must spend 1 DP.

Each time a unit from this detachment that arrived on the battlefield from Reserves this turn destroys an enemy unit, until the end of the battle, that unit has the Feel No Pain 6+ ability.
