COMBAT PATROL

THE VARDENGHAST SWARM

TYRANIDS | WARHAMMER 40,000 | 11TH EDITION

The Terror of Vardenghast leads a swift, swarming infestation — Termagants and Barbgaunts overwhelming the enemy in numbers while a Psychophage and Von Ryan's Leapers tear through anything that stands too close. This reference compiles the official Combat Patrol: The Vardenghast Swarm detachment rules and datasheets exactly as presented in the Warhammer 40,000 app, formatted to match the No Figure Left Behind Combat Patrol archive.

ARMY RULES

SHADOW IN THE WARP

If your Army Faction is Tyranids, once per battle, in either player's Command phase, if one or more units from your army with this ability are on the battlefield, you can unleash the Shadow in the Warp. When you do, each enemy unit on the battlefield must take a Battle-shock test. Each time an enemy unit takes such a Battle-shock test, if it is within 6" of one or more Synapse units from your army, subtract 1 from that test.

SYNAPSE

If your Army Faction is Tyranids, while a Tyranids unit from your army is within 6" of one or more friendly Synapse models, that Tyranids unit is said to be within Synapse Range of that model and of your army. While a Tyranids unit from your army is within Synapse Range of your army:

• Each time that unit takes a Battle-shock test, take that test on 3D6 instead of 2D6.
• Each time a model in that unit makes a melee attack, add 1 to the Strength characteristic of that attack.
