Designer's Note. Despoiler Squads are the Heresy-era close-assault tactical squad — chainsword-and-pistol Marines who would form the front rank in Legions that favour melee resolution (World Eaters, Sons of Horus, Night Lords). The 10e/11e equivalent (Assault Intercessors) requires a Primaris bolt-rifle variant; the Despoiler is the pre-Primaris pattern in Mk II/IV armour. HB anchor: canonical Tactical Squad stats plus a chainsword-and-bolt-pistol loadout, a "+1 Attack on charge" bonus, and Lethal Hits on the charge turn. Slightly cheaper than Breachers (90 vs 100) reflecting the lower defensive package — pure attack profile, no boarding shield. 11th-edition verification, 2026-08-30: real profiles confirmed in `Legiones Astartes.json` (Despoiler Legionary and Despoiler Sergeant) —
