Designer's Note. Forge Lord is the Heresy-era Master of the Forge — senior Techmarine, the Legion's armoury commander. Canonical 10e/11e Master of the Forge covers the role partially, but the HH version has stronger vehicle-buff auras, a battlefield-bolster ability, and a plasma cutter. HB: Captain-tier T4/Sv2+ (servo-armoured) plus a D3 repair on a Vehicle/Dreadnought per Command phase, a 6" Vehicle-Hit-1-reroll aura, and a once-per-battle "Bolster Defences" terrain upgrade. 85 pts — pairs naturally with Dreadnought-heavy lists. 11th-edition verification, 2026-08-30: real profiles cross-checked in `Legiones Astartes.json` — base Forge Lord SAV2+/INV5+ (card's SV2+ already matched, INV was 4+, corrected to 5+), Cataphractii Forge Lord SAV2+/INV4+ (already matched). No Jump Pack or Saturnine variant exists in either the original card or current BSDData — consistent with the theme of a foot-bound Techmarine, not an omission. Real data does have a Mounted/Outrider Forge Lord, which this card's original design never included — left out here too for the same reason.
