

OUTRIDER SQUADRON

LEGION ASSAULT BIKES

ADEPTUS ASTARTES — LEGIONES ASTARTES (HORUS HERESY)

The Heresy's melee-focused Legion bike unit — purely close-combat oriented, chainswords roaring as the squadron roars into the flank.

Designer's Note. HH Outrider Squadron is the Heresy's melee-focused Legion bike unit — distinct from canonical 10e/11e Outriders (which use bolt rifles and power swords for ranged-melee balance) by being purely close-combat oriented, with chainswords, +1 Attack on the charge, and special-weapon flexibility (melta, flamer, volkite). HB: T5/Sv3+/W3 per model (canonical Outrider tier), Scouts 9", charge after Advance, Hammer of the Legion bonus melee attacks on charge, and Outflank for Turn 2+ flanking. 90 pts for 3, 270 for 9 — the Legion's fast melee counter-charge unit. 11th-edition verification, 2026-08-30: real profiles confirmed in `Legiones Astartes.json` (Outrider and Outrider Sergeant) — SAV3+ matched this card exactly, no invuln in either, no correction needed.
